About the Organizer

Croatia Fest Production is a festival brand dedicated to preserving, presenting, and promoting rich folk and musical heritage. Since 2011, we have been creating international cultural festivals that bring together ensembles, orchestras, dance groups, and choirs from across Europe and beyond. More than 15,500 performers from over 350 groups have appeared on our stages, reflecting the strength of cultural exchange and the trust that artists from around the world place in us. Under the Croatia Fest Production umbrella, we develop four distinct festival programs, each with its own artistic identity:

Croatia Folk Fest
a celebration of folk rhythms and traditions

Croatia Brass Fest
the mighty power of brass harmonies

Croatia Choir Fest
deeply moving choral performances

Croatia Dance Fest
an energetic dance spectacular

Our vision is simple: to transform Croatian destinations into stages of world cultures and to create festivals that inspire lasting memories, foster friendships, and celebrate artistic diversity.

FEST PRODUCTION

About the Festival

Croatia Folk Fest is an international folklore festival that brings together ensembles from various countries, turning Croatian destinations into stages of tradition, rhythm, and togetherness.

The festival celebrates the beauty of folk dance, music, and costume, offering audiences a vibrant display of cultural diversity. Each edition showcases energetic dances, colorful traditional attire, and melodies that carry the spirit of different nations.

Croatia Folk Fest is known for its warm, welcoming atmosphere where performers and visitors connect through song, dance, and shared joy.

Edition: Rab includes the town of Rab and surrounding island destinations, where tradition meets the warm Adriatic charm. Medieval streets, coastal promenades and sunlit squares turn into vibrant open-air stages where rhythms from different countries blend with the island's unique landscape, creating a memorable festival atmosphere. More than a performance, the festival is an experience that stays in the heart.

CEO and Producer

Nikola Tuškan is a passionate advocate of folklore and cultural heritage, with many years of experience in organizing cultural events across Croatia and abroad. He studied Public Sector Management in Zagreb, specializing in cultural management and the creative industries.

From his early days as an active musician and ensemble member, Nikola has been deeply involved in preserving and promoting Croatia's traditions – as a performer, cultural organizer, and collaborator on numerous projects. Today, as CEO and Producer of Croatia Fest Production, he takes pride in shaping festivals that bring together music, dance, and heritage, welcoming outstanding ensembles from Croatia, Europe, and around the world.

A devoted family man, married and father of two, Nikola believes that the values of community and heritage are best shared through art and cultural encounters.

"I am proud and grateful to have spent so many years connecting culture and tradition with the wider world through our festivals. I warmly invite all lovers of folklore, music, and dance to join the Croatia Fest Production family and experience the magic of our festivals in Croatia."
