CROFEST 4 ALL

About the Organizer

Croatia Fest Production is a festival brand dedicated to preserving, presenting, and promoting rich folk and musical heritage. Since 2011, we have been creating international cultural festivals that bring together ensembles, orchestras, dance groups, and choirs from across Europe and beyond. More than 15,500 performers from over 350 groups have appeared on our stages, reflecting the strength of cultural exchange and the trust that artists from around the world place in us. Under the Croatia Fest Production umbrella, we develop four distinct festival programs, each with its own artistic identity:

Croatia Folk Fest

a celebration of folk rhythms and traditions

Croatia Brass Fest

the mighty power of brass harmonies

Croatia Choir Fest

deeply moving choral performances

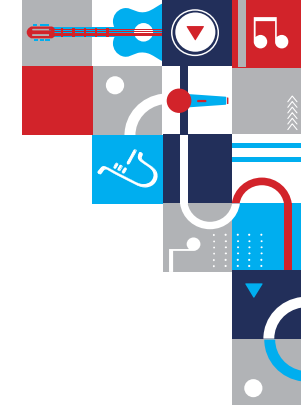

Croatia Dance Fest

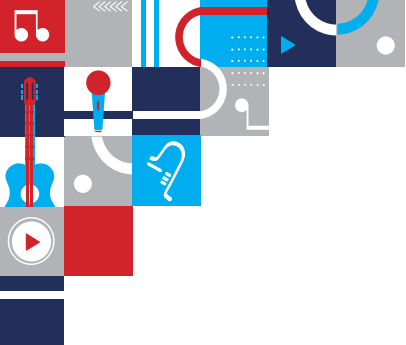

an energetic dance spectacular

CROATIA
FEST PRODUCTION

Our vision is simple: to transform Croatian destinations into stages of world cultures and to create festivals that inspire lasting memories, foster friendships, and celebrate artistic diversity.

About the Festival

CROFEST 4 ALL

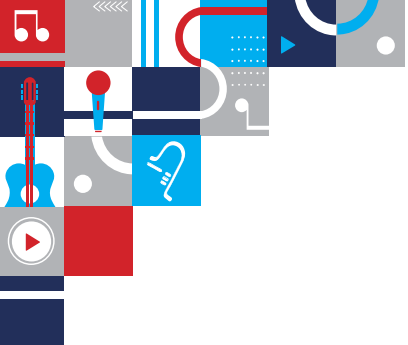

CroFest 4 All is an international mixed-program festival that brings together ensembles from various countries, turning Croatian destinations into stages of artistic diversity, rhythm, and shared celebration.

The festival unites the creative energy of folk, brass, dance and choir performances, offering audiences a vibrant mosaic of styles and expressions. Each edition showcases dynamic choreographies, powerful musical moments, vocal harmonies and traditional elements that carry the spirit of different cultures.

CroFest 4 All is known for its warm, welcoming atmosphere where performers and visitors connect through movement, music and shared joy.

Edition: Krk includes towns across the island of Krk, as well as destinations along the wider Kvarner region, especially the Crikvenica–Vinodol Riviera, where multiple artistic traditions meet the coastal Mediterranean spirit. Streets, squares and seaside promenades transform into lively open-air stages where sounds, rhythms and performances from different countries blend with the local landscape, creating a distinctive festival atmosphere. More than a performance, the festival is an experience that stays in the heart.

CEO and Producer

Nikola Tuškan is a passionate advocate of folklore and cultural heritage, with many years of experience in organizing cultural events across Croatia and abroad. He studied Public Sector Management in Zagreb, specializing in cultural management and the creative industries.

From his early days as an active musician and ensemble member, Nikola has been deeply involved in preserving and promoting Croatia's traditions – as a performer, cultural organizer, and collaborator on numerous projects. Today, as CEO and Producer of Croatia Fest Production, he takes pride in shaping festivals that bring together music, dance, and heritage, welcoming outstanding ensembles from Croatia, Europe, and around the world.

A devoted family man, married and father of two, Nikola believes that the values of community and heritage are best shared through art and cultural encounters.

"I am proud and grateful to have spent so many years connecting culture and tradition with the wider world through our festivals. I warmly invite all lovers of folklore, music, and dance to join the Croatia Fest Production family and experience the magic of our festivals in Croatia."
